

Measuring Our Success By That Of Our Clients

GEORGE BRENLIA

George F. Brenlla received his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School and received his B.S. in Industrial and Labor Relations from Cornell University. He is admitted to practice law in all the federal and state courts in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. He is also a highly sought after speaker on employment issues, alternate dispute resolution, and management options during union organizing.

Mr. Brenlla concentrates his practice on labor and employment litigation with a formidable track record of litigation success in defending management clients in various trial and appellate federal and state courts, as well as proceedings before the National Labor Relations Board and other government administrative agencies. Many of these victories have been obtained at a lower cost to clients through pre-trial dismissals or other advantageous resolutions.
